Notice of Fee Increase on January 1, 2003

If a reply to a "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" is filed in the Office on or after January 1, 2003, then the amount due will be higher than that set forth in the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" since there will be an increase in fees effective on January 1, 2003. See Revision of Patent and Trademark Fees for Fiscal Year 2003; Final Rule, 67 Fed. Reg. 70847, 70849 (November 27, 2002).

The current fee schedule is accessible from: <http://www.uspto.gov/main/howtofees.htm>.

If the issue fee paid is the amount shown on the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due," but not the correct amount in view of the fee increase, a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee" will be mailed to applicant. In order to avoid processing delays associated with mailing of a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee," if the response to the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) due form is to be filed on or after January 1, 2003 (or mailed with a certificate of mailing on or after January 1, 2003), the issue fee paid should be the fee that is required at the time the fee is paid. If the issue fee was previously paid, and the response to the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" includes a request to apply a previously-paid issue fee to the issue fee now due, then the difference between the issue fee amount at the time the response is filed and the previously paid issue fee should be paid. See Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, Section 1308.01 (Eighth Edition, August 2001).

Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at (703) 305-8283.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Maria Trevisan on December 17, 2002.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

A) Claims 5, 13, 15, 18, 21, 22, 30, 38, 58, 61, 67, 68, 71, 72, 89, 95, 101, 105 have been cancelled as drawn to non-elected subject matter.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The claims are drawn to methods of identifying a subject at risk of developing cancer by abnormally increased methylation of a CpG island containing TMS1 by comparing level of methylation of the CpG island with a control wherein increased methylation is indicative of increased risk of developing cancer. The claims requires a CpG island TMS1 nucleic acid molecule which both hybridizes under stringent conditions to SEQ ID NO: 4 and codes for a TMS1 polypeptide comprising a caspase recruiting domain and having apoptosis inducing activity. Moreover, the claims are drawn to methods of identifying a subject having cancer who is at risk of being non-responsive to an apoptosis-dependent anti-cancer therapy.

The prior art teaches the hypermethylation of CpG islands is indicative of increased risk for cancers (Nelson, US Patent 5,552,277; Baylin, US Patent 5,756,668; Herman, US Patent 5,786,146). The art, however, does not teach the hypermethylation of a CpG island containing TMS1 nucleic acid.

In addition to the breast cancer tumor sample data in the specification, the declaration filed January 18, 2002 by Paula Vertino under 1.132 illustrates that TMS1 methylation status was analyzed in additional tissue samples. The declaration provides that normal human brain tissue and primary human glioblastoma multiforme tumor samples, in addition to additional cell lines. The declaration provides that "eight out of seventeen (i.e., 47%) primary glioblastoma multiform tumor samples analyzed demonstrate TMS1 methylation. Figure 2 illustrates eleven samples considered to be representative of the seventeen" (page 2 of Declaration filed January 18, 2002).

Therefore, in view of the applicant's arguments, the declaration filed under 1.132 and the amendments to the claims, Claims 1, 47, 110-124 are allowable.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to examiner Jeanine Goldberg whose telephone number is (703) 306-5817. The examiner can normally be reached Monday-Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
